

Profile

Margit Liebhart, Mag.^a, MSc, business consultant. Born in 1983 in Bavaria, graduated from high school 2001 in Innsbruck, then went to live and work to London. 2002 Studies of International Business at the University of Innsbruck, exchange year in Valpo (Chile). 2007 foundation of own bag label magbag; concurrently project coordinator for an international NGO. Master in Organisational and Social Psychology at the London School of Economics, focus: Organisation Development after Ed Schein. Graduation in 2009. Ever since OD and L&D work in Austria and abroad. Internal OD position in the health care industry. Business consulting trade license 2011.

Lives in Volders nearby Innsbruck. Judoka, nature epicure, handbag designer. Culture enthusiast. Social researcher.

Key area:

- Organisation development, design & co-creation of learning organisations
- Leadership seminars and transformation of organisational cultures.

Some exemplary projects:

- Sustainable organizational transformation through introducing innovative ways of collaborating and institutionalising collective learning processes at a department of Alpha (A).
- Leadership seminars in the educational sector: leading knowledge workers, dialogue, and constructive organizational change processes (A).
- Co-creation of Communication culture and team development to enable collective decision-making for school directors (A).
- Leadership programme at Wirtschaftsförderungsinstitut Innsbruck since 2011(A).